

The musical flights of the new acoustic album with author songs by Kalin Naydenov – a challenge towards Destiny and the fans of the new Bulgarian pop music

A review by Ina Krein – writer

Everyone has a favourite musical album that they reach for when they are either happy or sad. Its music soothes, inspires, carries hope and loses you in thought. Its songs bring light and good mood. It is usually colourful, rich in melodies and lyrical metaphors, with instrumentals created with precision, carrying a specific idea. Such albums do not come into existence every day, they are a product of the talent of exceptional musicians and performers. Therefore, they are extremely valuable.

The new acoustic musical album with author's songs by Kalin Naydenov is precisely such a phenomenon – it carries in itself originality, quality musical works created with talent, full of beauty, questions and magic. They are a charming provocation both for the amateur lovers of original Bulgarian music and for professional musicians and connoisseurs.

Fourteen songs. Fourteen musical flights at different stages of human life. Fourteen different emotions and turns of The Wheel of Destiny. Each song has different sensuality, mood and tune. The lyrics reveal universal human states related to the most important and precious things in life – love, separation, pain, hope, faith, desperation, change, strength, weakness. Love, hope and dreams rise against pain and the blows of fate through the power of Music – redemption, light and resurrection of the Soul.

The author of the lyrics and the music is Kalin Naydenov, a lawyer by profession.

The musical pieces are multi-coloured and diverse, and the following musicians take part in the recordings: Kalin Naydenov - guitar, vocals, solo guitar /1, 11/, Teodora Stoyanova – flute /5/, Dimitar Rusev – Mutata - solo guitar /2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12/ and harmonica /12/, Todor Dimitrov – Tokicha - audio engineer, electronic guitar /3/.

The undisputed qualities of the album are the exceptionally professional instrumental combined with the beautiful warm voice of the performer, the clear melody of the pieces and the excellent texts. They make Kalin Naydenov's album suitable for any listener who appreciates Bulgarian quality pop music.

Travelling on the wings of music found in each of the songs gathered in this original and worthwhile musical album, the listeners will touch the different states of the loving human soul – they will feel the pain from the separation, the doubts, the weight of the memories, but also the faith, the hope, the change, the joy of love and shared happiness.
